AHEAD, Inc's founders, Baba and Mama Williams and the Father of the Nation, H.E. Julius K. Nyerere, First President of Tanzania.

About Us...

In July 1974, Dr. Irving and Mrs. Elvira Williams took their 4 children to Tanzania to help with building the post-colonial society in Tanzania. Dr. Irving Williams, Pediatrician, assigned to Bugando Hospital, and Mama Williams, an educator, taught at Nyakahoja Primary School. After two and a half years, they became committed to giving back to a Nation that gave their family so much... Upon returning to the United States, The Williamses felt they had to do more to reduce morbidity and mortality rates for women and children, so AHEAD Inc. was formed, and has been thriving since then. They joined with Dr. Winnie Mpanju-Shumbusho and created the organization AHEAD –Tanzania. Both organizations work together with the local community to create projects that address the local needs of the villagers.

About The Symposium

Access to quality healthcare is a fundamental right for every individual. Despite significant advancements in the practice of medicine, many people around the world still face challenges in accessing the best healthcare services. In Tanzania, often individuals are compelled to seek medical treatment abroad even for uncomplicated maladies due to perceived gaps in healthcare services within the country. The symposium, "Healthcare Excellence: Advancing Health through Leadership, Diplomacy, Innovation, and Collaboration," aims to address this issue by exploring where the opportunities are to best strengthen the existing healthcare services within our country.

Purpose: The primary objective of the symposium is to initiate a dialogue on the importance of enhancing healthcare services within our borders, and to cultivate strong leadership in the healthcare sector. Simultaneously we seek to promote innovation and foster enhanced collaboration amongst healthcare professionals nationally and globally.
